Exhibitor Contract (continued)

Booth Assignment

Space will be assigned to exhibitors on a "first-come-first-served" basis. The assignment or subletting of any part of all the exhibit space is not permissible without notification to and approval by the Exhibit Manager.

Insurance and Hold Harmless Agreements

The company name on the insurance certificate must match the company name listed on the contract. Fire, theft, liability, and extended coverage insurance, if so desired, must be obtained by exhibitors at their own expense. Each exhibitor will be responsible for all property they bring into the exhibit hall and shall be at the sole risk of loss for that property. Each exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the South Florida Water Management District, their agents and employees, from any damages caused by theft or perils normally covered by extended coverage, liability, or fire policies; for all claims, losses, liability, or damages for injury, death or property damage that may arise from activities of the exhibitor, its employees, agents, invitees, and licensees.

Fire, Safety, and Health

The exhibitor agrees to accept full responsibility for compliance with city, county, state, and federal fire, safety, and health ordinances regarding the installation and operations of equipment. All exhibit materials and equipment must be reasonably located within the booth and protected by safety guards and devices where necessary to prevent personal accidents to spectators.

Default by Exhibitor

Exhibitor shall be in default if it fails to pay at pre-identified dates the required sums under the agreement of breaches any of the other provisions of this contract.

Cancellations and Refunds

In the event of cancellation by the exhibitor, the following schedule of refunds will be followed:

- Refund of the total amount paid will be made if cancellation is received prior to October 2, 2006.
- No refunds will be made after October 2, 2006.
- If cancelled at the discretion of the Exhibit Manager, the amount of refund will be determined by the Exhibit Manager at the time of cancellation.

Safety

Safety of all occupants of the Alico Arena is of primary concern. Any unsafe condition or activity should be immediately reported by dialing 239-590-7145 and 239-590-7146 for Alico Arena and 239-590-1900 for the Campus Police.
